TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

IDAY is a network of African and European organisations, all individually engaged in educational projects in Africa. The objective of IDAY is to achieve education for all. To achieve this, IDAY members organise or participate in the preparation and celebration of events in Africa as well as in Europe, each year on the occasion of the International Day of the African Child on 16 June. They strive to mobilise a large public and media support in order to spur the governmental authorities to take the means necessary to promote quality primary education for all.

In order to benefit from IDAY's support, the members will:

1. sign the IDAY Charter (available on the website www.1606.eu) and submit it to the national IDAY representative the secretariat of IDAY International;
2. participate in the organisation of the events on 16 June in their country, around the theme of a completed basic education for all by 2015. Participate in the organisation of the events according to the annual theme, determined by the African Union, and the planification established by each country's ministry in charge of basic education, possibly in coordination with Pôle de Dakar
3. participate in the drafting of the common Manifesto, submitted by all members to the authorities of their country
4. utilise the IDAY logo on all official documents, boards and banners during the events of June 16th
5. strive to form or participate in national coalitions, gathering NGO's and non-profit organisations operating within the field of education, thus creating mass effect
6. invite national and European authorities concerned to the events in order to submit the Manifesto to them
7. fill in the form of candidature and submit it to IDAY-international by 15 April 2010
8. fill in the evaluation form and submit it to IDAY-international by 1st August 2010
9. commit to participate in the annual evaluation of results to make the organisation of next year's IDAY events more effective

In exchange, IDAY-international will strive to support the organisations engaging in this process, both morally and financially.

If the administrative committee of IDAY-international accepts the application of candidacy, 50% of the amount budgeted for the organisation's support will be submitted for 1 June. The remaining amount will be submitted after the acceptance of the Committee in charge of the dossier.

The amount budgeted to promote IDAY 2010 projects is 1000 euros per national coalition.
